Congratulations

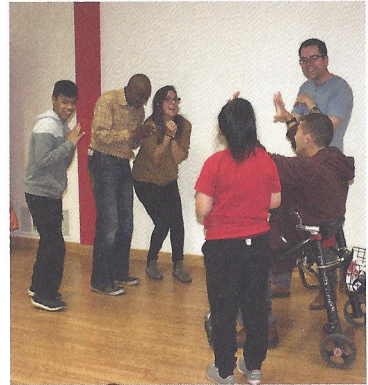

Congratulations to the First winner of the ArtCare Arts Learning Achievement Award, Teaching artist Lauren Kivowitz and The ACTsmart Intensive Residency

This project is a partnership between the American Conservatory Theater and AccessSFUSD: The Arc.

ACT teaching artist Lauren Kivowitz worked weekly with transition-age youth and adults at AccessSFUSD: The Arc (a partnership between San Francisco Unified School District and The Arc, a nonprofit dedicated to empowering people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.)

Students learn the tools actors use for performing and story-telling, including body, voice, imagination, emotions, senses, and cooperation. They practice using these tools through activities that challenge them to work together and figure out how to make meaning in theatre as both performers and audience members. In the second half of the year, the class chooses a theme that resonates for them, and Lauren supports them in a play-building process that culminates in a public performance.

The partnership between Access and ACT has received funding from the Irvine Foundation, ACT's Education Budget, and Department of Children Youth & Families.
